

generationOn Indiana

generationOn Indiana is a grant funded program facilitated by the IASP (Indiana Association of School Principals) and the IMLEA (Indiana Middle Level Education Association) to support and assist educators and youth development professionals in Indiana with the FREE service and service-learning resources on the generationOn.org website and the FREE philanthropy education and service-learning lessons and resources on the learningtogive.org website. The genOn IN program also provides educators at generationOn Schools with free professional development and supports their service-learning projects with our grant funded mini-grants. Connect to us by registering on www.generationOn.org Contact Joan Belschwender, Director of genOn IN, generationOn@iasp.org for more information and check out our genOn IN page on the IASP website, <http://www.iasp.org/affiliates/genon/> and the IMLEA website, www.imlea.org , genOn IN tab.

The mission of generationOn is to inspire, equip, and mobilize youth to take action that changes the world and themselves through service. Educators, parents, community organizations, and youth themselves will find the resources and programs needed to ignite the power and potential of young people to become leaders and problem solvers, successful students and active community members through service. The generationOn website has no cost resources for many audiences that include age-appropriate issue area project ideas, instructions, how-to guides, and much more for K-12 youth, as well as, service-learning resources and online service trackers for educators and teens. Campaigns, special days of service, and a themed monthly resources engages youth and families in their schools and communities. Engage, Educate, Equip, and Empower students through the generationOn Schools and Clubs programs using 21st Century Skills through real-world problem-solving and service opportunities to make their mark on the world!! www.generationOn.org

Imagine a world where all youth are knowledgeable and equipped for lifelong engagement in philanthropy as givers of time, talent, and treasure for the common good. The Learning to Give website has no cost Philanthropy Education/Service-Learning Lessons and Resources that Teach Giving and Civic Engagement through Academics. LTG equips K-12 teachers with lessons and resources to educate students as philanthropists with knowledge, skills, and action to make a better world. Connect students' civic lives to academic learning. Over 1700+ K-12 teacher created lesson plans searchable by keyword, issue area, subject, grade level, theme, calendar event and academic standards. Add service to your calendar by aligning philanthropy lessons and service-learning projects to monthly events. Browse the Issue Area pages with related lessons and toolkits. The Fisher Educator Mini-Courses provide online professional training in philanthropy education and service-learning. www.learningtogive.org